Dear Parent/Guardian

As I'm sure you are aware, homework is an essential part of the curriculum at Bishop Bridgeman and is set so that pupils can develop interest into areas that we are currently studying.

So far this year we have been trialling a new homework system in which children would complete a pre task, mid task and end project.

Whilst this way of setting homework has given children the opportunity to spend extended periods of time on homework, general feedback has shown that parents and children would prefer to have homework set on a weekly basis.

In response to this, we are now going to be reverting back to homework being set every Friday and due back into school the following Wednesday. The homework will be linked to a theme or topic of the teacher's choice.

Below is an example of the homework template that children will receive in their homework books ready to be completed:

Homework		Date: January 10 th 2020	Date due: Wednesday 15 th 2020
I have practised my spellings.  <input type="checkbox"/>	I have practised my times tables.  <input type="checkbox"/>	I have read at home.  <input type="checkbox"/>
Spelling score:	9/10	Timestables score	136 /144
HOMEWORK: As part of our current topic work into Ancient Egypt, we have been learning about how mummies are made. For your homework this week create a step by step process for creating a mummy. Try to present your work in an interesting and creative way MATHEMATICS HOMEWORK: Login to www.mymaths.co.uk to view your online maths homework

If you require any more information, homework will be discussed at the schools upcoming Stay and Learn events which will be taking place in school over the next few weeks, please try to attend for more details.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely
